The attention of the Collector is invited to his references cited above and he is requested to report why he has not now recommended Sri S.S. Martin, a retired Accountant and which of the two accountants viz., S.S. Martin and Sri C. Bhimasena Rao he prefers for re-employment. He is also requested to report whether Sri S.S. Martin and Sri C. Bhimasena Rao are mentally and physically fit for duty.

Sri S.S. Martin was not recommended for further retention by the Treasury Deputy Collector, Bellary and found him lax in his work. A copy of the Treasury Deputy Collector's report is enclosed.

I prefer Sri C. Bhimasena Rao to Sri S.C. Martin for re-employment. Both of them are mentally physically fit for duty and Sri Martin was found to be easy going and not keen on continuity. He has lands at Bellary and was devoting more attention to his cultivation than to his official work.
